

Survey Informed Consent Form

Introduction

Thank you for your participation in this survey, your feedback is incredibly valuable to us and is essential in the development process of our project, “Legitify”, a blockchain based credential verification platform. This survey is designed to gain your insight and feedback regarding several key areas, such as usability, functionality, design, and overall satisfaction and will be carried out by one of the two project researchers; Christopher Dobey or Padraig Mann.

Participation

Your participation is entirely optional, and you may choose to end the session at any time without consequence, and request that your participation is not considered. If you do choose to participate, the survey should take no longer than 15 minutes of your time.

Overview

First you will be asked to create an account on the platform, under the guidance of the researcher. Then the researcher will ask you to complete a series of tasks, which we would like you to attempt to complete, without guidance, to give us the best real-world feedback we can achieve.

Benefits and Risks

While there are no known risks associated with this research, your participation will help improve the usability and effectiveness of "Legitify," benefiting future users.

Data

We are committed to maintain the confidentiality of all information gathered throughout the course of this research, including any information gathered through your use of the site, as well as any information provided in the following document. This data will be used to gather feedback and insight by the two researchers involved, Christopher Dobey, and Padraig Mann. All data will be stored offline, up until the 16th of May 2025, at which point, the testing phase will end, and all personal data, uploaded content, and any other identifiable information collected during this testing phase will be destroyed or deleted permanently.
